COOKING STOVE!

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.
Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers [illegible]. This Stove was invented expressly for this eastern market by those experienced and expert Stove manufacturers Messrs [illegible] & Whittier who know and have appreciated the wants of this enlightened public. It is now offered to the public with the fullest confidence in its merits, and its superiority over every other Cooking apparatus ever introduced. Its conveniences for Boiling, Broiling, Frying, &c are not surpassed, and its extensive and beautiful Oven for Baking and Roasting will at once recommend itself to the ladies. One very important feature is it has very stout land and [illegible] as it [illegible] manufactured in this city [illegible] at all times [illegible] if ever necessary at a [illegible] expense without subjecting one to wait for castings to be ordered from New York, [illegible] or elsewhere. Every Stove is warranted one year and one not giving entire satisfaction may be returned [illegible] the money will be refunded after 30 days trial.

—ALSO—

A great variety of other patterns of cooking Stoves such as the

CHERRY PECTORAL
For the Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.
AND FOR THE RELIEF OF PATIENTS IN ADVANCED STAGES OF CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
While it is a fraud upon the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the maladies for which it is employed.
As time makes these facts wider and better known this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country in every State, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs—and in many foreign countries it is coming to be extensively used by their most intelligent Physicians. In Great Britain, France and Germany where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Alms Houses, Public Institutions and in domestic practice as the surest remedy their attending Physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of lungs. Also in milder cases and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual to cure. In fact some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it efficacious in cases particularly incidental to childhood.
The Cherry Pectoral is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration.
We have endeavoured here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should commend itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual, which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy of uniform strength to afford Physicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR Coughs, Colds and Consumptions.

The VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is probably without a parallel in having during a period of more than Twenty-five years fully maintained the high reputation which it has acquired for CONSUMPTIVE COMPLAINTS and all DISEASES of the LUNGS, THROAT and CHEST. It has been used with probably greater success than any other article known, and Physicians who have had an opportunity of witnessing its highly salutary effects recommend it as a safe and very efficacious medicine, equal if not superior to any other prescription for the above complaints within their knowledge. The basis of this medicine was a private recipe of a distinguished Physician in one of the neighboring States, and was preserved by an individual to whom it gave the most astonishing relief. It is composed of vegetables and if used according to directions must be perfectly safe.

From Messrs Allen & Co. Merchants, Concord.—"Those persons who have used the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam uniformly speak of it as a valuable medicine, and from the quantity sold notwithstanding the numerous other preparations used for similar complaints, we consider it first on the list.
Respectfully &c ALLEN & CO."

The Editor of the Seneca Falls Courier says—"We have had occasion to witness the good effect of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam in our family in case of a young lady who has been entirely cured of Consumption by the use of it, and also in severe coughs and colds. We cheerfully bear testimony to its being a safe convenient and very efficacious medicine in cases of this description."—Ed Courier.

A Clergyman from Philadelphia writes that he has been in the habit of using the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for himself and family, for the last thirteen years, and [illegible] of recommending it to his friends and considers it an invaluable remedy for all pulmonary complaints.

For the last five years of my practice I have had the satisfaction to witness the beneficial effects of Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam in many cases of obstinate coughs, [illegible]. I would therefore confidently recommend its use in all complaints of the chest, as being equal if not superior, to any other medicine within my knowledge.

Patents secured in Europe and other countries.
By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining their inventions and of consulting in respect to their matters in general of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions, &c. on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws and patents of different countries collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of every patent, at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents assistance or information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment.
R H EDDY, Solicitor of Patents

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq. of Boston did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Strangers in the city will please take notice the old numbers and the even numbers are on opposite sides of the street, it being 4 doors opposite to the subscriber's residence 467 where he will keep a full supply of Ready Made Trusses for Gentlemen and Ladies, Youths and Infants. Abdominal Supporters of five or six different kinds and such as Hull's, Chase's, Spinal Cutter's, Fitch's, Legg's &c &c
Ladies waited upon by Mrs Caroline D Foster at the above place.
The following certificate from Dr John C Warren of Boston was given 15 years since but will last forever.
Boston January 7 1835
Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath. After some months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments and ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur. I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to these important articles.
JOHN C WARREN M D Boston
CERTIFICATE The following certificate is from Professor Stuart of Andover Theological Seminary.
The undersigned having occasion to employ Mr J Frederick Foster of Boston in making and fitting Trusses for the relief of Hernia takes great pleasure in recommending him to the favorable notice of such persons as may be afflicted with that and similar complaints. Mr Foster's success in the manufacture and adapting them to the body giving ease and comfort to the wearer surpass (as far as our experience goes) any other manufacturer of the article.
The numerous testimonials which he has received together with the recommendations of that eminent surgeon Dr J C Warren is a sufficient guaranty for all who may favor Mr F that his instruments will give entire satisfaction and he will satisfy all reasonable demands for an equitable compensation.

The Chief Good.

Happiness flits before the eyes of mortals, a beauteous phantom, now receding until it is lost in the distance, then advancing with radiant brow and wreathed smiles, opening wide its arms to receive the embrace of its fond pursuers, then as suddenly disappearing, leaving them wrapped in darkness and gloom. Who has not been thus beguiled and cheated? Ask the sensualist, and he will tell you that his excesses have debilitated his body, and enervated his spirit. Ask the successful aspirant to power, and he will tell you that his is a life of splendid misery. Ask the mere man of wealth, and in the bitterness of his soul he will tell you that happiness is not necessarily the inmate of palaces, nor is she to be found in gold and silver. The scholar likewise, whose soul walks abroad through the universe, collecting from the boundless field before him, ample stores of information, will acknowledge that mere discipline and enlargement of intellect themselves, [illegible] that peace of mind which [illegible] understanding. And the [illegible] pleased though he seem to be in pursuit of [illegible] and being closely questioned will confess that his unbelief is the source of unrest and fears, which not even the most elucidative philosophy can quell. Such will be the acknowledgement of every son and daughter of Adam whose thoughts and affections have not passed the boundaries of this world.

Who will show us any good? Is the eager enquiry of multitudes whom you may encounter in the streets and in places of business and of the gay and high places of earth. Has it been in vain then, that God has bowed the heavens, and come down to earth? Has it been in vain that in connection with the advent life and death of Christ, events the most wonderful and astounding have been made to pass before the eyes of mankind. Hath Christ died in vain? Hath he risen and ascended in vain? Is there no meaning in these wonderous actions?

Who will show us any good? Is there any good but in him? Is there any guilt-cleansing blood but his? Is there any holiness but that is found in him. Is there any life eternal, and blessed.

Who will show us any good? Shallow sinful enquirer. Look upward! Whose voice do you hear saying "Come unto me and you shall receive rest unto your souls. In my presence is fullness of joy and at my right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Thanksgiving

For who is sad when old Thanksgiving comes,
With all its wealth of sweets, cakes and plums
Behold the farm house [illegible] the old farm gate
A merry group [illegible] expectance wait—
The happy farmer and [illegible]
The city cousin—very nicely drest
The village beauty, in her bran new hood
The happy [illegible] her [illegible] good
[illegible] her waiting for her eldest son
Who brings the bride he [illegible]

Shall never once Thanksgiving day forget.

Thanksgiving

Come forth, come forth to the festal board
As our sires were wont in the days of old
The reapers are home with their harvest hoard,
The herds have hied to their wintry fold,
And the cullers of fruits our vaults have stor'd
With the wealth of the orchard's freight of gold.

Come forth, come forth, with your heartfelt praise,
To swell the songs at the alter's side,
For a lofty paean to God we raise
Who has scattered his love-gifts free and wide,
And still, from the wan earth's earliest days
His seed time and harvest hath not denied

Come forth—to the haunts of your childhood come
To the roof in whose shadow your life was nurst,
By the hearth of the household there yet is room,
Where your heart of thanksgiving was fostered first
The faggot is blazing your welcome home,
And from joyful lips shall your greeting burst

There's a ruddy tinge on the wrinkled cheek,
For the pulse of age [illegible]
And a gleam, like the light of youth, doth break
Mid the care worn shades on the old man's brow
For the vision of old in his soul awake
The scenes of his childhood are round him now

Oh, this is the day when the thought goes back
O'er the flowery paths of our early years
Where the garlands of joy have strewn the track
And hidden the graves of our hopes and fears
And the names of the friends whose tones we lack,
Steal over the heart like a gush of tears

Tis the hour when kindred circles meet—
That still must the wanderer homeward bring—
When the echo of childhood's tireless feet
Through the halls of their father's house stead ring—
When gladness breathes in the tones we greet
And a murmur of love to the lips doth spring

Come forth, come forth to the humble cot
Where the children of want and sorrow rove—
Where the hand of the reaper garners not
The stores that a father's goodness prove,
And the poor man weeps for the toilsome lot
Entailed on the heirs of his earliest love

Come forth to the fields with the heart which leaves
A blessing wherever its trace appears
To lighten the song which sorrow weaves,
Where poverty's portion is steeped in tears,
And freely fling, from your bursting sheaves,
Like the reapers of Boaz, the gleaning ears

We hallow the day as our fathers did,
With a mingling of gladness, and praise and prayer,
With a willing boon for the lowliest shed
That the hungry and poor in our thanks may share
That the scantiest table be freely spread,
And the lip of the mourner a blessing bear

For the sons of the feble pilgrim band,
Who first on a distant rock-bound bay
Gave thanks for the gifts of the teeming land,
Have spread over mountain and stream away,
And a song of praise shall to God ascend
From a myriad of burning lips to-day.

Come forth, come forth with the chiming bell,
A joyous throng to the alter glade.
Come, mingle your tones with the organ's swell
And where the door of the feast stands wide
Let the grey haired sire to his grandchild tell
A tale of our nation's grateful pride.

It is stated in "The Voice of the Fugitive," published in Windsor, Canada West, and edited by Henry Bibb, that the underground railroad never did more thriving business than at present. Within ten days the editor says, he has greeted no less than [illegible] refugees from slavery, [illegible] difficulty in making their way.

Thanksgiving Concert.

A grand Thanksgiving entertainment is to be given at the City Hall, on this evening, by those charming Vocalists and instrumental performers the Harmoneons. These Musicians propose making this a very attractive Concert full of innocent humor and mirthfulness and a gem of musical excellence. The Harmoneons have never laid themselves out fully for something agreeable and reliable without accomplishing it, and we are sure they will not fail in this instance. A crowded house will so cheer them ... that each one of them will ... himself in musical powers, and thus produce a combined Concert rarely ... Beaux and Belles, old and young, ... attend the Concert on this evening and get their money's worth and a great deal more.

☞ Our old friend Dr. Aaron Young, Jr., is now engaged, in addition to the business of preparing and selling medicines, in editing a new paper entitled "Farmer & Mechanic." It is devoted to the general interests of labor in farming and manufacturing and to the furnishing the minds of those engaged in these pursuits, with much that is valuable and interesting. The Doctor is eccentric, but he has a great amount of labor in him and appreciates fully the great interest of productive labor to the welfare of the community. The Doctor cannot stir up the people in his vicinity to fruit raising and the growing of trees of all sorts.

A barber desired a groggy customer of his one Sunday morning, whose breath smelt strong of alcohol, to keep his mouth shut or the ... [illegible] ... open on Sunday.

☞ The Republic States that several weeks ago a gentleman from New York city visited Washington for the purpose of consulting with some of the prominent citizens in relation to a group of marble statuary to commemorate the discovery of America. The estimated cost of the entire work of art is one hundred and fifty thousand dollars including the transportation thither, and the placing of it in a proper location on public grounds. It was or is proposed to defray the expenses by the sale of lithographic prints representing the group, at $1 each; the sculpture to be commenced in Italy as soon as one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars shall have been thus collected. In case of a failure to secure this last named sum, the money is to be transferred to the Treasury of the National Monument Society, to aid in the erection of the column to Washington. It is not known what success attended the mission of the gentleman.

Fire.

The dwelling house on Ohio street, occupied by Capt. Wentworth took fire yesterday afternoon, and was damaged to the amount of $200. It was insured in the Penobscot Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

☞ The London Times regards the election of Gen. Pierce as favorable to the domination of free trade, and likely to increase the relations between the United States and England. Doubtless, the country is on an extension scale of trade and speculation, and England will be drawn upon largely for goods, high prices and credit, speculation and extravagance will be the order of the day, but the end thereof will doubtless be a commercial and financial crash.

☞ The editor of the Concord Patriot has been shown a magnificently mounted cane—an intended gift to General Pierce from about a dozen of the citizens of Concord, Meredith and Plymouth, in that State. The top is composed of gold, massive in appearance, and beautifully chased. There are engraved on it the arms of all the States of the Union. It was manufactured by Mr. H. Prentiss, Court street, Boston, and cost $65. It will be presented to the President elect by Mr. J. H. Pearsons.

☞ A resident of Leeds apprises the editor of the Galway Vindicator, that he can prepare a liquid, a pint of which, in a glass grenade shell, thrown through a barrack window in the night, would silently destroy the whole of its living inhabitants, or broken in the face of an advancing force, horse or foot, would arrest their progress by death or paralysis.

☞ Our new Minister to Mexico, Judge Conkling, and Buckingham Smith, Esq., and the other members of the Commission gone out in search of the mines of Dr. Gardiner, were passed on the 3d inst., on the road between Vera Cruz and the capital.

☞ Agreeably to an ancient and universal custom in every regular printing office, and in order to enable all connected with this office to enjoy thanksgiving unincumbered with the usual labor of other days, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

☞ Efforts are making in New York to get up a meeting to persuade Mr. Law to withdraw Purser Smith from the Crescent City.

Liberia Agriculture.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

I frequently notice, and with pleasure too, the interest manifested in the columns of the Whig and Courier, both in extract and original, on the subject of agriculture, both useful and ornamental. If you think the underwritten worth a place in your columns you are at liberty to insert it.

The Hon. Zion Harris, Esq., of Liberia, writes to R. R. Gurley of Washington City, former Secretary of the American Colonization Society, that he has been twenty-one years in Liberia, and has a farm of forty acres, from which the last year, (1851,) he realized $1200, leaving a nett balance of $800. He says he ploughs with his oxen, and has four good horses, for one of which he has been offered $100 there, and if he ... him in America he would readily bring $300. He says also that droves of hogs and turkies are seen in the streets of the town of Beley for sale. He says that he has had the honor of representing his district five years in the National Legislature of the young Republic of Liberia, and asks and answers the question himself, if it was ever known that a colored man in America ever had the honor of representing a district in the Legislative Halls of that Nation? No, and never will, and invites all enterprising colored persons to come to Liberia, where if they will only work half their time, they will soon become independent, also good schools for their children.

Population of the British Empire—Emigration to Australia and the United States.

Rarely have human calculations or human foresight been more rudely exposed than by the events of the last few years. Our age imagined that it was past the calamities and errors of former times, and perused the records of ancient generations with a mingled sentiment of incredulity and compassion. But our own turn was close at hand. Not all our political economy nor our commercial resources could save us from the visitation of a worse than medieval famine; not all our sanitary science can detect the sources, or ascertain the nature of a mysterious and deadly plague, and never were armies more numerous or politics more unsettled than since it has become the fashion to ridicule the idea of war. There now appears to be impending a revolution more perilous still. Among the thousand social questions which have occupied the attention of statesmen, the single one which was never included is that which is likely to overpower all the rest. Half our legislation and all our fears have proceeded on the supposition that these islands must necessarily suffer from an excess of population, and that neither work nor wages, social place nor political function, could be long provided for such an abundance of claimants. We are now actually threatened with something very like danger from the opposite quarter, and at this very moment, for the first time, perhaps, within man's memory, the population of Great Britain is rapidly decreasing.

We yesterday published the usual quarterly return of births, marriages, and deaths, carrying this periodical census of our progress up to the end of September. We have said the ... [illegible] ... wholly inapplicable. There were at least sixty thousand fewer people in the British Isles on the 30th of September than there had been on the 24th of June. As it happened, the deaths bore rather a larger proportion than usual to the births; for, though the anticipated visitation of an Asiatic pestilence was, fortunately, not experienced, the total deaths from epidemic causes exhibited an increase. The point is interesting enough to suggest a cursory statement of the facts actually noted. In the five summers ending with that of 1852, the deaths from cholera in London were respectively: 153, 12, 837 (this was the fatal year of 1849,) 87, 188, and 127; so that the mortality from this peculiar disorder during the recent season, when such lively apprehensions were entertained, was not only less than last year by 50 per cent, but lighter even than in 1848. Account must be taken, too, of the increase of population in the interval, which will make the proportion still more favorable. The remark, however, takes us back to our more immediate subject, for in future, if things proceed as they are proceeding at present, the Registrar-General will have to "correct his averages" in a very different sense, and allow for a diminution instead of an increase.

In the quarter under consideration the births were 151,193, and the deaths 100,497, leaving a balance in favor of the population of 50,696; but in the same period there sailed from these shores at those ports where Government emigration officers are established no fewer than 109,236 persons, so that the gain above specified becomes at once a loss of 58,540. Making allowance for these departures which escaped registration, we may very safely set the total emigration at not less than 60,000 persons—a fact which implies not only that our population is decreasing, but that it is decreasing more rapidly than it ever yet increased. A total of some 200,000 or 225,000 a year represented the greatest ordinary amount of gain in this particular, but the loss on the other side is now upward of 100,000 in a single quarter; and that quarter, we may be pretty sure, will be left considerably behind by the quarter next to come. We shall probably be within the mark in saying that our population will for a certain period, diminish in the same ratio as it has heretofore increased, and that, instead of 200,000 a year being added, the same amount will be subtracted.

The great question is, how long this drain will be continued? We can only say, that there appears, as yet, no sign whatever of cessation or abatement. There is no doubt but that more people left the country in October than left in September and as little that more are departing in this present month than departed in October. Only the other day we published a notification that the Government Emigration Commissioners, having fixed on Southampton as a depot, had stipulated for the construction of a species of barracoon at each terminus of the South-Western Railway, capable of containing 2,000 emigrants, who were to be cleared off with extraordinary facility and quickness, and replaced by fresh claimants for a passage. The opening of the new year, according to the announcement, was expected to communicate a strong additional impulse to the traffic; and, as Australia will at least take all we can send, it is hard to fix any limit to the displacement. The effects, indeed, are already felt in almost every branch of everyday business, and the experience of another year under these strange conditions will go far to teach us how soon what is now relief may assume the character of exhaustion. As many men are not employed in the army, navy and militia, all taken together, as are now leaving England every six months.

A remarkable feature of the event is the diversion of the emigrating stream from the westward to the southward. The population of the American Union is likely to suffer in proportion as what may be some day a New Union is likely to gain. As yet the attractions, principally, no doubt, through family ties, of the United State still preponderate, and they received 62,529 emigrants out of the 109,236. These, however, were mainly from the port of Liverpool, and the exportations from this quarter consist chiefly of Irish. When we turn to London, which sent forth 21,788, it appears that Australia was the destination of no fewer than 14,936 of the number, and we may reckon, perhaps, on at least a corresponding proportion of the 3,125 who sailed from Plymouth. The effect of the diversion will tell also upon ourselves in the difference of the classes which will be allured by the difference of attraction. The rush to Australia is not constituted by the impulses of famine, wretchedness, or despair. It arises from a deliberate preference of one field to another, and we should probably not be wrong in concluding that at least one-half of the 15,000 persons who last quarter left London for the gold-fields had already a position more or less settled of their own. Many large establishments are now, in fact, like regiments after a battle, with young hands unexpectedly promoted to the duties of seniors, and vacancies in abundance still. No man can pretend to conjecture where this will end. At every turn and in every department of life we shall encounter the results of a revolution which is almost converting an old country into a young one, which tends to depress capital, and to elevate labor, which will put prizes at a discount and candidates at a premium, which will abolish the burden of pauperism, extinguish the springs of Socialism, and open fair avenues of advancement to all the middle classes of society. Even if the stream should continue running but for two years longer it will probably deprive Great Britain of at least a million of grown up men, and will create a chasm in the population which ten years of subsequent progress would not fill.—London Times, Nov. 4th.

The Young Man's Leisure.

Young men! after the duties of the day are over, how do you spend your evenings? When business is dull, and leaves at your disposal many unoccupied hours, what disposition do you make of them? I have known, and now know, many young men, who if they devoted to any scientific, or literary, or professional pursuits, the time they spend in games of chance and lounging in bed, and in idle company, might rise to eminence. You have all read of the sexton's son, who became a fine astronomer by spending a short time every evening in gazing at the stars, after ringing the bell for nine o'clock.—Sir William Phips who at the age of forty-five had attained the order of knighthood, and the office of high sheriff of New England, and Governor of Massachusetts, learned to read and write after his eighteenth year, of a ship carpenter, in Boston. William Gifford, the great editor of the Quarterly, was an apprentice to a shoemaker, and spent his leisure hours in study. And because he had neither pen nor paper, slate nor pencil—wrought out his problems on smoothe leather with a blunt awl. David Rittenhouse, the American astronomer, when a plough-boy, was observed to have covered his plough and fences with figures and calculations.

James Fergerson, the great Scotch astronomer, learned to read by himself, and mastered the elements of astronomy while a shepherd's boy, in the fields by night. And perhaps it is not too much to say, that if the hours wasted in idle company, in vain conversation, at the tavern, were only spent in the pursuit of useful knowledge, the dullest apprentice in any of our shops might become an intelligent member of society, and a fit person for most of our civil offices. By such a course, the rough covering of many a youth is laid aside; and their ideas, instead of being confined to local subjects and professional technicalities, might range throughout the wide fields of creation; and other stars from the young men of this city might be added to the list of worthies that is gilding our country with bright... [illegible]

Rev. Dr. M... [illegible]

Jeremy Taylor suggested that it might be as hard to be born as to die. A great deal harder if the Whig party is really dead. For it was born with infinite pains, extraordinary efforts, great exhortations, tons of documents, a long and a strong pull. It died without knowing it. And as the Seminoles did not know how to stay whipped, when thoroughly beaten, very likely the Whig party won't know enough to lie still after it is knocked down, nor to stay dead after it is killed.

"It is a very singular thing," said a tailor's apprentice to his master, as the latter was pressing a bob-tail coat, "that the more there is of some things the less there is."

"How can that be?" said the tailor.

"Why, there's that bob-tail coat—the less you make the tail, the more bob it is."

Maybe the goose did'nt fly about that time.

Has Woman a profession? Certainly she has; and its duties, in dignity and importance, yield to those of none of the professions of man.

The training of the human mind in childhood and youth—the care of the human body in infancy and sickness—and the conservation of the family state—these are the distinctive duties of Woman's profession.

From the shore of your domestic life there emanates an influence, strong and powerful, for good or for evil; and though silent in its operation, it sways the world to its will as certain as the unseen power of attraction binds the planets in their orbits, or holds the suns of the universe to their centres. No matter when or where it is ever the same in its effects.

A gentleman seeing some cows grazing in a field said he did not wonder that the grass did not get high, as it was cow'd down.—And, seeing a cellar nearly finished, he remarked, "it was an excellent foundation for a story."

Every man cherishes in his heart some object—some shrine at which his adoration is paid unknown to his fellow mortal—unknown to all save his God.

A dirty, slovenly dress, will exert an evil moral influence upon the child; it will aid in destroying its self-respect; it will incline it to habits which correspond with such a garment.

Don't rely too much on the torches of others; light one of your own.

H. G. FARRELL'S CELEBRATED ARABIAN LINIMENT

Is well known to possess the most wonderfully healing, penetrating, and stimulating properties, and by its promptness in affecting cures, which previously had resisted all other medicines, administered by the most scientific physicians, has placed it far beyond any similar remedy ever introduced to the people of the United States. It stimulates the absorbents to increased action, and thus enables nature to throw off disease—it penetrates to the bones, adding strength and activity to the muscles—it is powerfully anodyne and thereby allays nervous irritation, producing a delightfully pleasing sensation through the whole frame. Owing to its antiseptic properties, it purifies and neutralizes that poisonous, corrosive principle which renders old ulcerous sores so difficult to heal; it therefore is peculiarly adapted to their speedy cure. This Liniment from its penetrating and strengthening qualities has been found to be a specific for Paralysis or Palsy; White swellings and diseased joints, and in fact all complaints involving the muscular system. It has cured cases of Rheumatism of twenty to thirty year's standing, and affections of the Spine wherein the entire spinal column was so crooked and distorted, that the patient could not walk or stand without artificial support. Numerous cases of Palsy have been cured when the flesh had withered, leaving nothing but the dried skin and bone, and the limbs totally without use or feeling. For children with Croup it is of inestimable value, rubbed and bathed over the throat and chest.—If applied freely on the chest it never fails to give relief in the severe coughs attending Consumption, Asthma and Colds. It heals wounds speedily—will cure Scaldhead, Mange, etc. Planters and Farmers will find it a most valuable medicine to be applied in Horses and Cattle for Sprains, Bruises, Lameness, Stiff Joints, Sweeney, Dry Shoulder, Wounds, Burns, Splint, Chafes or Galls, Hardened Hoofs on the flesh, etc.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS.

The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, called W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because his having the name of Farrell, many will buy it in good faith, without the knowledge that a counterfeit exists, and they will perhaps only discover their error when the spurious mixture has wrought its evil effects.

The genuine article is manufactured only by H. G. Farrell, sole inventor and proprietor, and wholesale druggist, No. 17 Main Street, Peoria, Illinois, to whom all applications for Agencies must be addressed. Be sure you get it with the letters H. G. before Farrell's, thus—H. G. FARRELL'S—and his signature on the wrappers, all others are counterfeit.

Sold by INGRAHAM & FULLER, wholesale and retail, Bangor. Also by R. F. Kinsell, Oldtown. French & Hamilton, Dexter. Geo. Parcher, Ellsworth. P. O. Flaherty, Houlton. And by regularly authorized agents throughout the United States.

☞ Price 25 and 50 cents, and $1 per bottle.

THE BEST

STOVE in the Market!

EXPERIENCE has proved to intelligent and the undersigned that the

BAY STATE

COOKING STOVE,

(For which the subscriber is Sole Agent for Bangor and vicinity) is superior to any other Cooking Stove now in use, for the following reasons:

Over fifteen hundred of these Stoves have been sold in this city and vicinity, and in no instance have they failed to give entire satisfaction, while many persons who have purchased other Stoves have been induced to exchange them for the Bay State, and in every instance have expressed themselves well satisfied with the exchange.

The great advantages this Stove has over all other Stoves now in use, are that it will bake in less time, and with less fuel than any other Stove, and is also a superior Broiler and Roaster, and for heating small rooms, it is far superior to any other Stove. Has a feature about it appreciated by every one who keeps house, viz: a Hot Closet.

The Bay State is not an open Stove, varying in price from $35 to $50.

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine, notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper publicity, has yet acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world. It is entirely of vegetable extract, perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child, and alike astonishing and satisfactory in its effects upon man or beast. To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, Give it a fair trial, and we promise you a radical cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all Lung Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery. In all of which cases it should be used internally. The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases, Sprains, Chapped Hands, Bruises, Burns, and all descriptions of wounds, are magical. Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side, or Bowels, Sore Throat, Piles, &c, by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne, cannot fail of certain and speedy cure. The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations, as it has done for forty years past. We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial. In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica. The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years.

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough and bleeding at the lungs, and receiving no benefit from medical aid, in 1843 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption. My legs swelled so that I was unable to stand, or help myself. At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me, and by the use of three or four bottles I was entirely cured, and have since been able to labor every day. I have also for the last twenty years been subject to severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of this complaint. I can truly say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life. JOHN T. ATKINS.

Brewer, Sept. 29, 1852.

Dr Johnson: Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated—but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment, and by using three bottles, my leg was limbered and strengthened, and for a number of years I have been able to use it about as well as the other. I consider myself indebted to the use of your Liniment, through the blessing of Providence, for the use of my leg, and would say to others who may need help in this way, try it, and no doubt you will be cured. Warranted Pure.

THE New Jersey Zinc Company furnish their Zinc Paints at the following prices:

No 1 White, ground in oil, 9 cents per lb.
No 2 White, " in oil 8 " lb
No 3 White, " in oil, 7 " lb
Dry White of Zinc, 6 cents per lb.
Brown and Black ground in oil, 5½ cents per lb.

Their WHITE ZINC PAINT, equal weight, covers, according to surface, from 40 to 100 per cent more surface than any other paint; retains its whiteness, brilliancy and protective qualities for years; is free from the poisons so dangerous in other pigments, to painters, and tenants of newly painted rooms, and resists the sulphurous coal gases and foul air of ships, and its outside or inside paint does not tarnish or become yellow. Ground in varnish it forms a beautiful porcelain finish. The French Government has adopted Zinc Paint for all uses.

The BROWN AND BLACK ZINC PAINTS form directly a solid metallic coating on wood, brick, iron &c, admirable for fire proof qualities. They are unrivalled for rail cars, depots, Engines, &c. For marine uses they resist the corroding of salt water and weather, so fatal to other paints.

The Zinc and Fire Proof Paints are sold at wholesale and retail at the manufacturer's prices, by GEO. W. EMERSON, Druggist, Agent for Bangor, 4 Smith's Block.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL!

FOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINANCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c. The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact as a remedy for the above complaints it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested and its virtues proclaimed by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found, the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY CONFUSION, thoughts of Self Destruction, fear of Insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses, or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. This however is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL, has, and is constantly curing these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of the Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this cordial, thus:—"It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me, says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in these cases in the hospital; but they had no effect. In the meantime he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of course out of the question, and the proprietor could produce host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidently obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

have not in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION

Of those who have used this Extract is—"I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I find no faith whatever, of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks! I am satisfied the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says—"I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured, others prescribed this thing and that, but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says—"I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering.

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morse's Cordial and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which, as unrivalled excellence, fame and popularity, have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate Female, but do good. B ware of all other Cordials, &c., (and try only this.)

It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. Morse's Vigorating Cordial, blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle: 2 bottles $5, 6 bottles $12, and $24 per dozen.

N. B. Important advice accompanying each bottle.

NOTICE. Persons conscious of physical inability from causes above named may confidentially consult D. Morse personally or by letter, (postpaid) at his office, 78 Sudbury street, Boston. GASTRIC FLUID.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

"DIGEST." Such is the true meaning of word PEPSIN. It is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is NATURE'S OWN REMEDY for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no ALCOHOL, BITTERS, ACIDS or NAUSEOUS DRUGS. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a water cracker without acute distress. Beware of DRUGGED IMITATIONS. Pepsin is NOT A DRUG.

Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the Stomach.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.

The Scientific Evidence upon which this remedy is based is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable. Call on the Agent, and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of Scientific Evidence, from Liebig's Animal Chemistry; Dr. Combe's Physiology of Digestion; Dr. Pereira on Food and Diet; Dr. John W. Draper, of New York University; Prof. Dunglison's Physiology, Prof. Silliman, of Yale College; Dr. Carpenter's Physiology, &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United States.

PEPSIN IN FLUID AND POWDER.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is prepared in Powder and in Fluid Form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians. The Powder will be sent by Mail, free of Postage, for One Dollar, sent to Dr. Houghton, Philadelphia.

OBSERVE THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copyright and Trade Mark secured.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills.

(Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless.—A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement—August 2d, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE, North street, Lynn, Norfolk.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following Complaints:

Ague	Fevers of all kinds	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Asthma	Fits	Sore Throats
Bilious Complaints	Gout	Stone and Gravel
Blotches on the Skin	Head-ache	Secondary Symptoms
Bowel Complaints	Indigestion	Tic-Douloureux
Colics	Inflammation	Tumours
Constipation of the Bowels	Jaundice	Ulcers
Consumption	Liver Complaints	Veneral Affections
Debility	Lumbago	Worms of all kinds
Dropsy	Piles	Weakness, from whatever cause, &c. &c.
Dysentery	Rheumatism
Erysipelas	Retention of Urine
Female Irregularities

Sold by the Proprietor, 244 Strand, near Temple Bar, London, and by all respectable Vendors of Patent Medicines throughout the British Empire, and by those of the United States, in Pots and Boxes at 37½ cts—87 cts, and $1,50 each. There is a very considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

Wholesale by the principal Drug Houses in the Union, and by MESSRS. A. B. & D. SANDS, New York. MR J. HORSEY, 84 Maiden Lane, New York.

DR. POMROY'S

Ophthalmic Ointment, OR EYE SALVE.

For the various diseases of the eyes and eyelids, nothing has ever been discovered equal to this medicine. All those painful and unsightly diseases to which the eyes are subject, yield to the effective ingredients of which it is compounded. Granulation of the Lids, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Lachrymal Glands, Humors, Sties, Weakness of the eyes, Watery eyes, Rheum, whether acute or chronic, are entirely cured by it.

After a few applications the fever and soreness are removed, the swelling subsides, a fresh and healthy color succeeds the inflamed and irritated appearance, the crustations caused by the discharges of the diseased surface falls of, and the strength, health and beauty are restored.

When once the lids and glands are in a healthy state the eye, no longer suffering by sympathy with its surrounding parts, recovers its energies, and is able to perform its important functions without weakness or pain.

This salve is a mild preparation, designed expressly to suit the extreme delicacy which forbid the use of powerful applications to the organs of vision. It may be used with entire safety in all cases, and seldom fails to cure. Many cases of Chronic Inflammation, where the sight has been greatly impaired, have been entirely cured by this simple application. It is believed that this salve has in no instance failed to benefit. All who have suffered with sore eyes, know how painful it is to be obliged to exercise the sight, long and steadily, when they are diseased. They will hail with joy anything that brings a remedy. This Salve invariably soothes and comforts the aching pain, and will in a vast majority of cases effect a radical cure. Affections of the optic nerve are more difficult to manage than those of the outer surface, but still, by the use of this valuable salve, they are greatly relieved, and often entirely cured.

☞ This Salve is also recommended for Eruptions Chilblains, Burns, Cracked and Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Scrofulous Sores, Pimples about the Face, Piles, Ulcers, &c.

PRICE, 25 CENTS PER BOX.
